Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Observations on the Thunder Dance of the Bear Gens, of the Fox Indians The two accounts of the Thunder dance of the Bear gens of the Fox Indians which I now present were written by two native informants in the current syllabary and were subsequently restored according to the phonetics of Harry Lincoln in the main, though a few pages of the second account were restored according to those of Thomas Scott. The songs, however, are given in the Fox syllabic style, using roman type for the script. The English translation of the first account is based upon an English paraphrase by Horace Poweshiek, corrected and supplemented by a grammatical analysis of the Indian text by myself. This last task was materially lightened by the intelligent help given by Harry Lincoln when answering linguistic queries based on the text. The English translation of the second account is almost entirely by myself, though I had the benefit of a paraphrase dictated by Harry Lincoln; and I was further assisted by the grammatical notes (based on the text) which I obtained from him. The first account is by Jim Peters, who died in 1917. The reason for the delay in its appearance is twofold - first, his request that this be deferred until after his death so that he might not suffer socially or politically, as he assuredly would have had it been disclosed during his lifetime that he had imparted the information; secondly, it was clear that additional data were needed. The second account in a measure covers the second desideratum. Hence both accounts are now published, even if the total information in certain respects is...
