This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Home Gardening and Food Security Attaining food and nutrition security is one of the Millennium Development Goals. In Kenya, a lot of effort has been put in to securing food for the nation. Yet, at household level, we still find many rural households struggling to afford even a meal per day. One of the resources that these households can utilize is land, which a majority do have. This project provides insights that can help communities, and organizations that desire to support the food insecure households. 104 pp. Englisch.
