WHAT BUSINESS IS FOR: A PAPER AT THE BUFFALO CONGRESS OF RELIGION (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from What Business Is For: A Paper at the Buffalo Congress of Religion What do you take me for? I am not in business for philanthropy. So far as men mean that business is business and that it does not consist in giving money away, men are right in saying that they are not in business for philanthropy. But what they often seem to mean is that they are in business for themselves and for what they can get out of it. Business is money making. Success in business is gauged by the amount of money which a man makes. Is he a millionaire? Then he is a successful man. In a word, business is selfishness at work. The theory is that on one side a man is and must be selfish. He is bound to get ahead of other men. He intends to give as little and to get as much! as he can. There may or may not be another side of his life where he is friendly and generous. He may be a kind father or neighbor. There is hardly any man who is not a philanthropist once in a while and towards some one. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
