Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Constitutional Manual for the National American Party: In Which Is Examined the Question of Negro Slavery in Connexion With the Constitution of the United States I abominate the brutalizing, man-destroying monster. To free my country from the curse of negro slavery I would gladly contribute the half of all the worlds goods I possess: nay more - I feel that if the responsibility was cast upon me, - to ensure such a result, I would sacrifice All that I possess. - I would trust an infant-orphaned family to the protection of Divine Providence, and relying in His goodness, now in the decline of life, go forth homeless and penniless into a world which nearly sixty years experience has taught me to know full well. All this I feel that I could do. But yet to accomplish such a result I would not consent to sacrifice the union of these states. At this price even the boon of negro freedom would be purchased at too dear a rate. Faulty and imperfect as our national institutions...
