Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Planning for the Future of American Cities, 1935: Proceedings of the Joint Conference on City, Regional, State, and National Planning The first joint conference of all organisations interested in the planning of our Cities, States, Regions, and the Nation was held in the City of Cincinnati during May of 1935. Participating were the American City Planning Institute, the American Society of Planning Officials, the American Civic Association, and the National Conference on City Planning. As a result of action taken at the Conference, the last two organisations have since merged. The desire and intent of the organizers of the American Society of Planning Officials to cooperate with other planning organisations in the interest of better planning were written into the records of the organisation meeting in the following words: It was the consensus of the meeting that the planning officials present recognized the importance to the planning movement of citizen support for, and public education concerning planning; and that the activities of the organisation of officials should be directed so as not to impede the...
